LOCAL BRIEFS.

Rev. W. H. Fish of the Unitarian church will speak in the Jewish synagogue tonight on "Atheism."

Five cases of whooping cough, all in the family of August Glaser of Heiler and Post street, were yesterday reported to the board of health.

Acting upon instructions of City Treasurer Harris, the waterworks department will proceed at once to shut off the water from all premises upon which the tax is delinquent.

Word was received yesterday from Chicago that Miss Florence Corcoran, daughter of Judge Corcoran and an intimate friend of Miss Agatha Berkhead of this city, was among the victims of the Chicago horror.

The grist mill and three small houses at the White Rocks Indian agency were destroyed by fire a few days ago, consuming all the wheat the Indians had stored there for grinding. The mill itself cost $15,000.

John Q. Critchlow was yesterday appointed trustee to take charge of the property of Isaac Glaser of Heiler and Post street, who was yesterday reported to the board of health.

The lecture on "Social Purity" in Barratt hall on Wednesday night next, is under the auspices of the Y. M. M. I. A. and not the Y. M. C. A., as erroneously stated in a morning paper. The lecturer is Prof. John T. Miller of the L. D. S. University.

The funeral of Joseph Mangione, the Italian laborer who was crushed to death at the Warm Springs quarry, was held yesterday from the undertaking rooms of S. D. Evans, who interment in Calvary cemetery. The loss of countrymen of the deceased provided for the funeral.

Word has been received in this city accompanied by two Philippine teachers, in the Salt Lake high school, but now a resident of Manila, will have charge of the educational exhibit of that city at the St. Louis fair. Mr. Hager, accompanied by two Philippine teachers will arrive in San Francisco on Jan. 18.

Oreste Pagnini, alias Robert L. King, well known in criminal circles in this city, and now stopping in Denver, has been appointed interpreter by Judge Malone of the West side court, in the case of Alexander Bracci, charged with the murder of John Bogatto, a bartender in an Italian saloon on Larimer street.

A fire of unknown origin started Wednesday evening in the house of A. M. Alexander, and but for its timely discovery by A. R. King, a boarder, it might have been serious. Several children were asleep in the house at the time, but the fire was extinguished before they were aroused. The loss was about $50, confined largely to clothing.

Local architects are talking of the establishment here of a factory for the manufacture of interior hardwood finish for buildings. The supplies furnished by eastern factories is proving unsatisfactory as it is shipped here imperfectly dried, and vexatious delays are caused thereby. A local factory would be able to furnish material sufficiently dried, and in any quantities to suit orders.

Local government officials employing civil service help call attention of applicants for positions to the necessity of sending to the civil service bureau at Washington for copies of the manual giving the information necessary for becoming a candidate for examination. This examination takes place in April at all of the large commercial centers of the country, and it will do no good to apply for positions without passing the regular examinations and being admitted to the service.

Col. Bubb of the Twelfth U. S. infantry has received orders from Washington to proceed to leave for the Philippines, March 1, to relieve the 29th infantry, which has been in the islands over two years. One battalion of the 29th will be stationed at Port Douglas in place of the first battalion of the Twelfth now here. It is reported again that one or both of the light batteries of artillery stationed at Fort Douglas will be sent away. The third battalion of the Twelfth is at Fort Bliss, Tex., and the second is distributed around in the department of the Colorado.

Amusements

"An Eye on Hubby" was at the Grand last night and played to a large and disappointed audience. Mr. Robert Buchanan's new "comedy," is very weak, and dragged from the rise of the curtain to the going down thereof. The company did their utmost to extract a laugh from the audience, but the most they could do was a No. 3 size smile. For their efforts the company deserve what praise is due to them, and it is possible that the uniform inferiority of every feature of the play prevented them from displaying their abilities. Mr. Robert Buchanan took the leading role in his own play, so there is little excuse for him. Miss Annie Girard did her best in the character of the "masterly" wife. Miss Adelaide Harland as a lady's maid made strenuous efforts to make the part a funny one, but it was too much for her. Mr. Harry Driscoll as a dude candidate for marriage also had but little opportunity. Of the rest of the company the less said the better. The play continues till Saturday night.

May we suggest to the management that the theater was insufficiently heated and somewhat draughty?

The sale of seats begins today for "Maloney's Wedding," which comes to the Grand theater next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, matinee and night.

Mr. Arthur Shepherd has moved his piano studio to room 30 Hooper & Eldredge Bldg. No. 49 Main St.

WHERE HEYWOOD WAS.

Like the Deseret News and Many Others, He Didn't Know.

Utah State Journal: The esteemed Deseret News and its esteemed contemporary, the Tribune, are slightly at variance over a gentleman named Perry Heath. The "News" couldn't find him and the Tribune could. Incidentally it may be remarked that United States Marshal Heywood was in the Deseret News class for this occasion.

Mr. William S. Crane, of California, Mr. suffered for years from rheumatism and lumbago. He was finally advised to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which he did and it effected a complete cure. This liniment is for sale by all Druggists.

CHURCH NOTICES.

Priesthood Meeting.

The regular meeting of the Priesthood of the Salt Lake stake of Zion will be held in the Assembly hall, Friday, Jan. 8, 1904, at 7 p. m. A good representation of the Priesthood, especially of the presiding officers, is expected.

ANGUS M. CANNON, JOSEPH E. TAYLOR, CHARLES W. PENROSE, Presidency of Stake.

Relief Society Officers.

The officers' meeting of the Salt Lake Stake Relief society will be held in the fourteenth ward hall Saturday, Jan. 9, 1904, at 2 o'clock. A full attendance is expected, and all secretaries and treasurers are requested to be present, as a part of the time will be devoted to their work.

M. ISABELLA HORNE, Pres. JULIA S. WOOLLEY, Secy.

Singing Class.

On Saturday, Jan. 9, 1904, at 12:30 p. m. at Granite stake tabernacle, Prof. Evan Stephens will organize a singing class for children between the ages of eight and fourteen, and in the evening of the same day, at 7:30 o'clock p. m. for young men and women over the age of fourteen. This is an opportunity that should not be neglected by any parents in the Granite stake, as an instructor of Prof. Stephens' ability is not often available.

FRANK Y. TAYLOR, EDWIN BENNION, JOHN M. CANNON, Stake Presidency.

Congratulations.

Mr. John H. Cullom, Editor of the Garland, Texas, News, has written a letter of congratulations to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy as follows: "Sixteen years ago when our first child was a baby he was subject to croup spells and he would be very uneasy about him. We began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in 1887, and finding it such a reliable remedy for colds and croup, we have never been without it in the house since that time. We have five children and have given it to all of them with good results. One good feature of this remedy is that it is not disagreeable to take and our babies really like it. Another is that it is not dangerous, and there is no risk from giving an overdose. I congratulate you upon the success of your remedy." For sale by all Druggists.

ALTERATION SALE.

QUEER DOINGS OF A RIFLE BALL.

I myself made the most extraordinary shot at an antelope that I ever heard of, which, however, has nothing to do with good shooting, but rather with the erratic course that a rifle ball may take. With several scouts, white men and Indians, I rode over a hill, to see three or four buck antelope spring to their feet, run a short distance, and then stop to look at me. I made a quick shot at once, which dropped, and on going to him I found him not dead, though desperately wounded. The animal had been standing broadside on, his face toward my left. The ball had struck the left elbow, splintering the olecranon, passed through the brisquet, broke in the right humerus, turned at right angles and gone back, cutting several ribs, broken the right femur, then turned again at right angles, and came out through the inside of the leg, and struck the left foot joint, which it dislocated and twisted off, so that it hung by a very narrow spring of hide. I never again expect to see so extraordinary a course for a rifle ball.

PROMOTING AND RETARDING EMIGRATION.

Roughly speaking, emigration is promoted, in the countries that send us the least desirable citizens, and retarded in those that send us the most desirable. Southern Italy must find an outlet for its surplus population; the Italian government resents our restrictions. For the laborers send many postal orders home, and frequently return with modest competencies to establish themselves in small shops or on small farms. De Plehve has as good as said that he would like to drive all the Jews in Russia to America.

No one realizes better than the German emperor the value of a strong young man to an industrial community. Twenty years ago emigration left a dearth of agricultural labor in Germany. The Kaiser set out to keep his Germans at home, and has pretty well succeeded. German steamship companies carry on an active propaganda in Italy, Slovakia and in Russia as well, but in the fatherland itself nothing of the sort is permitted. Every German being catalogued by the police, it is not only easy to stop the departure of those of military age, but also to discourage the departure of others. An American visiting Hungary is told politely that "we encourage the worst to go and keep the others."—Collier's Weekly.

Isaac Story, A. M., writes, Sept. 10th, 1903: "I was in bad health. I had stomach trouble for 12 months, also dumb chills. Dr. J. W. Mory prescribed Herbine. It cured me in two weeks. I cannot recommend it too highly. It will do all you claim for it." Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.

Rev. Carlisle P. B. Martin, L.L.D. Waverly, Texas, writes: "Of a morning, when first rising, I often find a troublesome collection of phlegm, which produces a cough, and is very hard to dislodge, but a small quantity of Ballard's Horsehold Syrup will at once dislodge it, and the trouble is equal to it, and it is so pleasant to take. I can most cordially recommend it to all persons, needing a medicine for throat or lung troubles." Price 25c, 50c, $1.00 bottle at Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.

Scrofula the Cause. Eczema, eruptions, pimples, white swellings and even consumption have their origin in scrofulous conditions. With the slightest taint of scrofula in the blood, there is no safety.
